Foreclosure continues to be on the rise and stopping foreclosure seems to be hard, unless you hear the team at MyLoanSavers.com talk about it.....

According to RealtyTrac the top 10 states for foreclosure in July are below.

1. Nevada: One in 106 homes
2. California: One in 182 homes
3. Florida: One in 186 homes
4. Arizona: One in 195 homes
5. Ohio: One in 375 homes
6. Georgia: One in 385 homes
7. Michigan: One in 389 homes
8. Colorado: One in 390 homes
9. Utah: One in 472 homes
10. Virginia: One in 562 homes

Nothing has really changed from previous reports foreclosure in Nevada and California are still very high and will continue to grow through the year.

James Boykins with <http://www.MyLoanSavers.com> says "We have seen a tremendous increase in calls from homeowners in Georgia and Florida over the last few months. Calls to stop georgia foreclosure have really seem to spike in the Atlanta Metro Area."

MyLoanSavers.com provides homeowners with assistance and a free consultation on how to save a home from foreclosure. If a homeowner is 1 month behind or even 6 months behind on their mortgage MyLoanSavers.com can save their home and current mortgage by renegotiating a low fixed rate and payment.
